1. The Third Anarchist National Congress was held on 23 - 25 April 1949 at Leghorn in the "Enrico Malatesta" headquarters of the Party at Piazza II Maggio. About 150 persons attended from the various Anarchist centers in Italy, chiefly Ancona, Massa Carrara, Piombino and Leghorn.

2. It is reported that on the last day about 30 delegates discussed relations to be maintained with the PCI (Partito Comunista Italiano – Italian Communist Party) and decided that the Anarchists would support the Communists only in street actions of a seditious nature, independently of the causes which may have provoked the outbreak.

3. The following Italian Anarchists took part in the Congress:

   a. Mario Mantovani, director of Il Libertario of Milan;

   b. Ing. Pietro Zaccaria of the Campania Federation, director of the Anarchist newspaper Volonta of Naples;

   c. Umberto Mazzocchi, director of the Anarchist movement in Savona;

   d. Luciano Golcich, director in Trieste;

   e. Carlo D'Oglio, director of the Anarchist newspaper Umanita of Milan; and

   f. Alfonso Failla of the Sicilian Anarchist Federation, from Syracuse.

4. The French Anarchist Party was represented by Raimond Huet from Paris.
